

Personal biography

Alexander Maune is a prolific researcher and practitioner whose research career started at the University of South Africa (UNISA) as a Post-Doctoral Research Fellow in 2014 in the College of Economic and Management Sciences (CEMS) in the department of Business Management. Prior to joining UNISA, he was a Business Finance Analyst with Standard Chartered Bank Zimbabwe for seven years. Alexander Maune has published a number of journal articles in internationally peer-reviewed journals and book chapters as well as conference presentations. His research interests include Competitive & Business Intelligence, Corporate Governance & Ethics, Banking & Finance, Start-ups, Indigenous Knowledge Intelligence and the Talmud. Alexander Maune is an environmental activist, a youth advisor, a member of the Strategic & Competitive Intelligence Professionals (SCIPs) as well as a member of the Zion Christian Church (Z.C.C.). He is a reviewer in the Journal of MCSER and Asian Economic and Financial Review. Alexander Maune holds a Ph.D in Business Intelligence, MSc Banking and Financial Services, BCom (Hons) Accounting degree and a Diploma in Management Accounting (Operational Level) (CIMA) and is currently studying BCom in Law with UNISA. He is also a Talmudic scholar.