

INTERNATIONAL WORKSHOP

“CORPORATE GOVERNANCE, INNOVATIONS AND FINANCIAL MARKETS”

Izmir, Turkey, October 29, 2015

Main aim of the workshop

Financial markets nowadays are in search of new recommendations and ways for further improvements. Taking the role of corporate governance into account in effective functioning of financial markets, it is obvious that recent corporate governance practices should be updated. The role of innovations is crucial. However, changes made for financial market and for corporate governance system have to be done simultaneously. The role of local regulators and other authorities should also be defined to create the most appropriate institutional environment for further innovative development. Key issues concerning the corporate governance system improvement should also be discussed. Such systemic approach will strength recent globalized economy trough improvements and recommendations provided as an outcome of scientific disputes.
